Pratt Family Scholarship 2005

Following the 10th International Heritage Rose Conference held in Dunedin in 2005, Heritage Roses New Zealand Inc. Established an annual research scholarship in keeping with our aim to learn more about heritage roses.

A dedicated Research Scholarship Fund has been invested on a long-term basis to fund this award. Applications are invited annually in the February Heritage Roses New Zealand Journal (the Journal).

Every scholarship applicant must:

- Be a member of HRNZI at the time of the application and for the duration of the scholarship
- Undertake research on heritage roses relevant to New Zealand.

The HRNZI Research Scholarship was changed to the Pratt Family Scholarship on the passing of Mr and Mrs Pratt in 2011 in honour of their passion and dedication to old roses.

RECIPIENTS:

- JOANNE KNIGHT 2007
- ANN CHAPMAN 2011
- MURRAY RADKA 2012
- SARAH WALLER- YATES 2013
